PRESS RELEASE

Luxempart reiterates its support to Bravo Capital Partners as Bravo Capital Partners II completes its first closing at € 90 million

Luxembourg, February 21, 2022

Bravo Capital Management S.à r.l., general partner of Bravo Capital Partners II SCA-SICAV-RAIF (“BCP II” or the “Fund”), a closed-end private equity fund with target size of Euro 110 million, successfully completed the first closing of the Fund at about Euro 90 million.

The funds were raised from primary institutional investors, including Luxempart S.A. (as anchor investor), European Investment Fund and from various family offices and High Net Worth Individuals.

Luxempart has taken the commitment to invest up to € 45m in BCP II, reiterating its strong support to its investment team, based on strong historic ties and an outstanding track record in BCP I.

BCP II, whose exclusive investment advisor is Bravo Invest S.r.l., is the successor fund of Bravo Capital Partners SCA-SICAV-RAIF (“BCP I”) and will continue to target Italian lower mid-market and invests in SMEs operating in B2B made in Italy sectors that display potential for aggregation and build-up opportunities.

BCP II has already completed its first investment acquiring the majority of Lorenzi S.r.l., an Italian specialized microfiber converter with a leading market position serving international luxury and technical footwear brands. The Fund is currently working on Lorenzi add-ons and two additional platform deals to be completed in 2022.

The Fund was assisted by Alma Società tra Avvocati and Van Campen Liem for legal and regulatory aspects and by fundraising advisor Impact Raising.
